FARM LABOR CONTRACTOR LICENSING

State law requires farm labor contractors in Idaho to be licensed.

As a licensed farm labor contractor, you should see an increase in business opportunities by creating an incentive for farmers to engage your services and by reducing unfair competition from unlicensed contractors.

Under the law, all persons performing farm labor contractor activities on behalf of migrant and seasonal farm workers in Idaho must:

- Be licensed by the state and pay an annual licensing fee.
- Post a surety bond to cover unpaid wages.
- Carry auto insurance for all vehicles used in the farm labor contracting business.
- Carry workers' compensation coverage for all employees.
- Provide all employees at the time of hiring full disclosure of the conditions of employment.
